- Registrations close on April 14, 2026
 - If a class has open slots, and the instructor allows walk-ins, you may register at the event after this date.
 - After this date, there will not be any refunds nor workshop class changes of exchanges.
- Classes are filled on a first come basis.
 - If a 1st choice class you have requested is full by the time of receipt of your class request, your 2nd then 3rd choices will be used for registration. If all three choices are full, you will be contacted to see if you would like another option.
 - You do not have to list a 2nd or 3rd choice.
 - If you do not have a 2nd or 3rd choice, and the 1st Choice class is full, you can specify if you would like to join the waitlist for the 1st Choice.
- You will be notified by email which classes you are registered for.
 - We do not accept cash for pre-payments.
 - Payment is due with the mailed registration form. If the payment ends up being different due to a 2nd/3rd choice, you will be contacted about the difference, and the payment/refund options.
 - If a class is cancelled for unforeseen circumstances, you will be contacted to be able to select another option or to receive a refund.
 - If you do not attend, no refunds will be issued.
 - Make checks payable to South Carolina Gourd Society.
- Please visit the website before coming to the event to ensure that you bring all the "Student Provided" supplies listed. The instructor will not have these items for you at class time. The festival will have an on-site vendor, but the vendor may be sold out or not have what the instructor has specified for you to bring.
